

HighSpeedBoat OperationsForum

Lisbon Portugal May 4-6 2015

HSBO - the High Speed Boat Operations Organizing Committee is happy to announce that there will be an HSBO Forum already in 2015

On initiative by and in cooperation with the Portuguese Navy & Maritime Authority, the 7th HSBO Forum, HSBO 2015, will be held at the Champalimaud Foundation Conference Center in Algés in Lisbon, Portugal.

HSBO Forum a by-invitation-only networking conference with highly competent presenters from many countries and full speed sea trialing of the best professional boats. HSBO 2015 will have the same typical format as established since 2003.

Lisbon Atlantic Endurance Challenge April 27 – May 2

LAEC - Lisbon Atlantic Endurance Challenge is a six days rally running over 950 Nm from Lorient in France to Lisbon. See: <http://offshore-endurance-challenges.org> LAEC will start on Sunday April 26, 2015 and finish on Saturday May 2 in Algés in Lisbon. Each leg will be 130 to 180 Nm. There will be one lay day.

LAEC is not a boat race. It is an opportunity to train, benchmark and verify capabilities of boats and crews, under controlled conditions over a demanding voyage. All boats will be monitored along the entire track for position, speed and heading and in regards to impact exposure on hulls and humans.

Invitations to participate in LAEC will be extended to professional operators and boat builders, military and law enforcement agencies and sea rescue organizations.

For more information see www.HSBO.org